

- The Global Programme on Preventing and Countering Violent Extremism (PCVE) of the United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism (UNOCT)

UNOCT's support to the next generation of young PCVE leaders in Africa coincides with the theme of this year's International Youth Day commemoration (12 August): 'From Clicks to Progress: Youth Digital Pathways for Sustainable Development'. Through YEEP Africa, young leaders have enhanced their knowledge about the impact of accelerated digitization in Africa and youth-designed solutions to harness digital pathways to mobilize against hate and division while building social cohesion and community resilience.

Despite the end of YEEP Africa in Nigeria, Kenya and Somalia,
