

UNST
PSCA(05)

RECORDS MANAGEMENT

ISSUE ON BRUNEI

I. BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON THE TERRITORY

Brunei is an oil-rich sultanate on the north-west coast of the island of Borneo, covering a total area of 2,226 square miles (5,765 square kilometres). It has a common border with Sarawak, one of the two eastern states of Malaysia which also divides Brunei into two parts. The total population

The legislative power is vested in the Sultan and a Legislative Council

II. ACTION BY THE UNITED NATIONS

Following the conclusion of the 1971 Agreement, the British Government

In reply, the British Government, while expressing itself ready to act as a channel of communication between the Special Committee and the Government of Denmark, has reiterated that Denmark was a sovereign state which had the right to determine its own destiny.

ANNEX I

GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 32/27 DATED 28 NOVEMBER 1977

The General Assembly,

Having considered the question of Brunei,

Having examined the relevant chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the 100°

110°

120°

114°30'

115°00'