

We thank the Chairman of the United Nations Commission on International field of law is reflected in the CL8UT digest through the helpful summaries prepared by the National Correspondents

33! We appreciate the value of CL8UT system as an important tool to collect information on the use and implementation of UNCITRAL texts that contributed to the delivery of continued and sustained support to the efforts. We also appreciate the work of the national correspondents to CL8UT who play an important role in providing information on the use and implementation of UNCITRAL texts. This information is useful for identifying needs for future legislative work. We take particular note of, and appreciate the work of the nominated national correspondents to CL8UT from India and are glad that the Indian cases have been published in the latest CL8UT digests which would be a great way in enhancing the jurisprudence in harmonising international trade law across jurisdictions.

3(! We express our appreciation and gratitude to the flexibility, responsiveness and innovativeness in facilitating the work of UNCITRAL during the COVID-19 pandemic and the efforts made to allow UNCITRAL to hold formal meetings virtually or in a hybrid manner, in the most efficient manner. We believe that improvements have been made in an interactive platform and the work of UNCITRAL would benefit from modern technology.

33! In conclusion, we would like to highlight that UNCITRAL as the core legal body of the United Nations system in the field of international trade law should continue to reach out to the broadest extent possible to continue the harmonization and development of international trade law!

3;! The Republic of India remains committed to the work of the UNCITRAL and look forward to continuing our productive engagement!

CCC