

PERMANENT MISSION OF CUBA TO THE UNITED NATIONS
315 Lexington Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016 (212) 689-7215, FAX (212) 689-9073

STATEMENT BY THE DELEGATION OF CUBA ON AGENDA ITEM 144
ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE AT THE UNITED NATIONS
New York, 11 October 2023

Mr. Chair,

Cuba thanks the Secretary-General and the Internal Justice Council for their periodic reports on this subject.

We attach great importance to strengthening the Organization's legal framework and welcome the achievements made since its creation and their positive impact on the administration of justice within the United Nations.

We commend the work of its personnel and encourage them to continue working on the basis of the principles of international law.

Mr. Chair,

The system of administration of justice created constitutes a conflict resolution mechanism that seeks to strike an important balance between the interests of the Organization's administration and its staff. This system must aspire to be independent, transparent and professional, consistent and based on international law, the rule of law and the principles of due process.

We consider that one of the main objectives of the UN system of administration of justice should be to ensure the protection of all rights, including human rights and the fulfillment of the obligations of officials, as well as to guarantee the relevant accountability of its personnel.

it and ensure that it has the necessary, adequate and decentralized resources at its disposal to carry out its