Pre-summit of UN Food Systems Summit 2021

The Constitution of Nepal has included the right to food as a fundamental right of citizens. The Government of Nepal has ensured the right to food for all Nepalese citizens. Realizing this, Nepal has taken UN Food System Summit 2021 as an important opportunity to examine its food systems and identify pathways for the equitable, sustainable and resilient food system.

Within this context, the National Planning Commission has organized National and sub-national level Food Systems dialogues with the theme "Nepal towards an equitable, resilient and sustainable food system". Key actors and stakeholders attended the dialogues and examined the food system at the national and sub-national levels. The dialogues focused on examining the five action tracks of UN Food System Summit and a policy environment.

Food System dialogues examined the expectations of current food system, its operation, issues and options for transformation. These Dialogues were crucial to build and strengthen linkages and collaboration with dis4ns

6. Emphasis on achieving self-sufficiency on key food items for substitute import (Strengthen coordination and triple nexus of agriculture, food security, nutrition and effective growth)
7. Information management system (for strengthening and scale up food security monitoring system, early warning and anticipatory early action mechanisms)
8. Food System governance (for implementing existing policies and increase accountability, especially on the part of duty bearers, market, supply chain, equitable descent wages to the actors engaged in different levels of food systems).
9. The right to food and food sovereignty Act (to facilitate and transform food system through making all actors accountable).

Way forward: Third national dialogues will be organized to explore the commitment, partnership and collaboration for transforming food systems in Nepal.
