

capacity of the existing health system to ensure long term sustainability. The Phase-III would continue to pay special attention to women.

---

The affirmative actions of the Government of India has started yielding results in overall literacy levels of (Scheduled Caste) men and women, as evident from the Table given below:

DThe	afPrimedulea	an2(ryotal	Upper	Primedulea employed among the SC women, however, is much lower than among the SC male (46.20%).

Seats have been reserved in proportion to the population percentage of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes