

Resolutions

Welcoming the efforts of the Organization of American States, including its Special Mission to Haiti, and of the Caribbean Community to mediate dialogue and promote reconciliation in order to strengthen the political environment in Haiti necessary for the promotion of economic and social

Reaffirming that gender mainstreaming constitutes a critical strategy in the implementation of the Beijing Platform for Action⁸³ and the outcome of the twenty-third special session of the General Assembly,

Noting the most recent report of the United Nations

1 Welcomes the report of the Secretary-General on on human rights and the Commission on Human Rights in that regard, twenty-third special session of the General Assembly,⁸⁵ especially concerning the measures taken by the Economic and Social Council and its subsidiary bodies to mainstream a gender perspective into their work;

1. Requests that the Secretary-General, in coordination with the United Nations resident coordinator in Haiti, report on progress achieved in implementing a long-term programme of support for Haiti and that the report be prepared for the Haiti;

2. Calls upon Member States and all other actors of the perspective into all activities at all levels;

programme of support for Haiti in the agenda of its subsidiary that of its subsidiary bodies, and therefore to give appropriate

27 July 2002

discussions and in the drafting of outcomes;

2002/23. Mainstreaming a gender perspective into all policies and programmes in the United Nations system

4. Expresses its appreciation to its subsidiary bodies for the progress made in giving attention to situations that are specific to women and to the mainstreaming of gender perspectives into their work, for example by:

The Economic and Social Council,

(a) Identifying gender equality as an essential element for the realization of social, people-centred and sustainable development and approaching gender as an issue that cuts

Recalling its resolution 2001/41 of 26 July 2001, in which it decided to include in its agenda a sub-item entitled programmes of the United Nations system" in order to, inter alia, monitor and evaluate achievements made and obstacles a social group to be targeted;

turner measures to strengthen the implementation and monitoring of gender mainstreaming within the United Nations streamlining the implementation processes within the

Also recalling its agreed conclusions 199//2 on attention on gender equality issues and ensuring the general consideration of gender perspectives throughout their respective decision to create a Commission on Population and Development

(d) D recognizing that men and women are affected affirming that gender mainstreaming is a globally accepted strategy for promoting gender equality policies that address the different experiences of men and women in response:

⁸³ See A/55/335.

⁸⁴ See Official Records of the General Assembly, Fifty-second Session, Supplement No. 2 (A/52/2/Rev.1), chap. IV, para. 4.

⁸⁵ General Assembly resolutions S 23/2 and S 23/3.

⁸⁶ E/2002/22.

Resolutions

(e) Continuing to use and call for data disaggregated on the basis of sex and using indicators that provide separate analysis by sex;

14. Underlines the importance of reports to intergovernmental bodies presenting issues and approaches in a gender-sensitive manner so as to give concrete and practical recommendations and serve as an analytical basis for those

7. Calls upon the bureaux of its subsidiary bodies to consider how best to facilitate specific gender discussions in their work;

Action and the outcome of the twenty-third special session of the General Assembly, including progress in the area of gender mainstreaming.

37th plenary meeting
24 July 2002

8. Encourages its subsidiary bodies to increase their collaboration with the Commission on the Status of Women, and encourages the Commission to continue its efforts to highlight gender perspectives in the work of the Council and its other subsidiary bodies;

2002/24. Arrangements for the negotiation of an agreement between the United Nations and the World Tourism Organization

The Economic and Social Council,

9. Invites its Bureau to consider, during meetings with the bureaux of its subsidiary bodies, progress made and obstacles encountered in gender mainstreaming, and encourages the President of the Council to consider, during meetings with

Having considered the request for conversion of the World Tourism Organization to a specialized agency of the Council and its subsidiary bodies;

to the Secretary-General of the United Nations,

10. Encourages the collection, provision and use by the United Nations system and its subsidiary bodies of data disaggregated by sex and other gender-specific information, as

Desirous of making arrangements for the negotiation with the World Tourism Organization of an agreement to constitute it as a specialized agency in accordance with Articles 57 and 63 of the Charter of the United Nations

11. Encourages the Special Adviser to the Secretary-General on Gender Issues and the Advancement of Women and the Division for the Advancement of Women of the Secretariat to expand their efforts to raise awareness across the United Nations system of gender issues;

Council to appoint from among States members of the Council, in consultation with the Chairmen of the regional groups, the members of the Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies;

12. Notes with appreciation the work of the Inter-Agency Network on Women and Gender Equality, especially its

2. Requests the Committee to meet at an appropriate time to negotiate with the World Tourism Organization a relationship agreement between the United Nations and the systematically by the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, and in that regard encourages the Board in its efforts to mainstream gender perspectives

3. Also requests the Committee to submit a draft relationship agreement between the United Nations and the

13. Also notes with appreciation the work of the Council to improve the situation of women by, inter alia, convening

Council at its substantive session of 2003.

those efforts;

⁸⁷ E/2002/5.