SUMMARY : PROGRESS ACHIEVED IN IMPROVING WOMEN ROLES AND GENDER EQUITY

In the 42nd Conference of Women Position Committee in March 1998 in New York, Indonesia has brought forward "Indonesia Report" on National Action Framework in an effort of following up results of World Conference IV on Women 1995 as contained in Beijing Platform For Action.

In the Indonesia Report, it was described various progresses and success achieved during period of first 3 years (1995-1998) together with various constraints and obstacles in implementing 12 critical problem, which are necessary to be paid attention.

In general, advancement and success in economic, social, education and health sectors are shown through indicator of gross domestic product (GDP) per capita, from 135/100,000 to 268/100,000 since birth (with target of 225/100,000 in 2000 and 80/100,000 in 2015) and indicator of contraceptive use rate from 59/1000 to 57/1000 since birth.

stable political and security situation for that time being has secured. In addition and encouraged the establishment of national development policies and programs, including women roles development policies and programs, such as in empowering women and children, prevention and overcoming of embarrassment to women and improvement and advancement of human rights protection for women in achieving gender equity and just, women roles in mass media and environmental management.

Within such a 3 years period (1995-1998) many parties both government and universities as well as community organizations, women organizations and NGOs

social cultures

In such an Indonesia Report, it is also confirmed that various successes achieved within 3 years Beijing Declaration implementation is not yet optimal and it is still found herein various obstacles and problems from women themselves (internal) and from government apparatus.

low understanding and awareness of government apparatus and position of women in the society, which place women as inferior group, so that they are over burdened in their family. In addition, most women are given inferior treatment, and they are over burdened in their family.

Establishing and optimizing implementation of UN Convention concerning contents of Beijing Declaration mentioned above, so that various progresses and successes achieved can be maintained and continued.

Various development progresses and successes achieved are disappearing within merely a day. In such a critical situation and social turmoil, it is perceived much that those who most heavily suffer from it are women and children. The extended economic crisis and such a social commotion have caused in many factories and companies, stores arson, robbery and plundering with embarrassment of rape and women and rape.

The extended economic crisis and such a social commotion have caused in many factories and companies, stores arson, robbery and plundering with embarrassment of rape and women and rape. Such a condition has resulted in robbery and burglary and resulted in robbery and burglary.

The continuity to the end of of culture in the most of women position is invariable still frequently receive discrimination with stereotype roles, and unfortunately, following National Action Framework above is suddenly obstructed not be retained to continue.

in 1985, temptation, fact burglary and robbery resulted in robbery

The Reform Government has immediately took steps to overcome various impacts of such a crisis and social turmoil by launching many short-term emergency operations through a Social Security Mesh (Jaring Pengaman Sosial/JPS) policy which covers 12 development sectors.

In order to gather facts on such a social turmoil victims and embarrassment rape victims, the government has established a Composite Team For Gathering Information (TGPP/Tim Gabungan Pencari Fakta) with members consisting of representative community organizations and religious organizations as well as a number of NGOs. In line with that, in many places which are considered vulnerable, securities are placed in One Stop Crisis Center.

In long-term, the government has also made efforts in advocacy, counseling and training for law enforcer apparatus and public community, encouraging establishment of Legal Assistance Institution and Crisis Centers. In order to prevent and eliminate embarrassment as a part of efforts in eliminating discrimination to women, realized through efforts of improving some national laws and by ratifying a number of international conventions.

In addition, with the Presidential Decree Number 181 of 1998, Komisi Nasional

Amnesty and National Commission for Human Rights, National Committee for Anti-Discrimination Women and with Presidential Decree Number 129 of 1998, the National Action Plan is determined to advancement and protection of human rights in Indonesia.

er activities, such as research and studies, are also carried out by some many universities, and in February 1999 in Jakarta a workshop has been organized, aimed at partnership between preventing and overcoming Embarrassment to Women, and Improving Human Rights Protection to Women.
